Zapplied GDPR Essentials Package

Quick Assessment: Data Processing & Data Protection	This quick assessment helps you to obtain insight into the role data processing plays in your organization and can help you with deciding which next step(s) your organization should take to process data in a safe and compliant manner.
Check list: DPO Description	The selection of a Data Protection Officer might not be easy considering the weight of his/her responsibilities within your organization. This check list provides you a helping hand by summing up the tasks and skills required by the GDPR.
Check list: Privacy & Security Principles	How to process personal data? That's the big question. This check list helps you to get organized. It sums up the main principles set forth in the GDPR which you have to take into account.
Check list: Personal Data Breach Reporting	What to do in case of a personal data breach? This check lists helps you step by step.
Check list: how to read a cloud SLA from a GDPR perspective	This check list helps you to create an image of what is important for your company from a GDPR perspective when procuring cloud services. It clarifies what to look for whilst comparing SLA's from different cloud service providers.
Build your own framework of privacy & security principles	This document provides a customized set of high-level official and validated security principles and requirements which can help your organization to achieve state-of-the-art privacy & security for your digital ecosystems.
Website cookies & privacy statement	Comply with your legal obligations and be transparent at the same time; with our Website cookies & privacy statement you explain your customers what happens with their data in a straightforward and comprehensive way.
Personal Data Processing Agreement	Take care of compliance with our Personal data processing agreement when you transfer personal data of your customers to a third party processor.